Create in Me a Clean Heart by Matthew Boswell
"Have mercy on me . . . Cleanse me from my sin! . . . Create in me a clean heart." The prayers of David fill the book of Psalms, but few illustrate the pattern of sin, renewal, and revival as poignantly as Psalm 51. Written amid his biggest failings, David's song overflows with wisdom and encouragement for believers today, teaching us how to run to God, not away from him, in our own dark moments.

Based on sermons by Matthew Boswell, Create in Me a Clean Heart reflects on the beauty of Psalm 51. In examining the chapter's key themes of repentance, restoration, renewal, and response, Boswell offers a fresh, unhurried look into David's heart and the Christian walk. This rich exposition teaches readers who long for forgiveness or need to understand their own need for repentance to find hope through the joy of confession and the mercy of Jesus.

The St Andrews Seven by Stuart Piggin & John Roxborough
The St Andrews Seven is the moving and inspiring story of six young men whose remarkable influence on one another as fellow students in the University of St Andrews, Scotland, in the 1820s led them to the profound conviction that 'Only one thing seemed to matter: to discover God's will and do it'.

The authors trace vividly and popularly the story— the aspirations, fears, doubts, struggles, opposition, sorrows, triumphs—of these six most gifted and dedicated young Christians, including one of their number who died before he could fulfil his heart's ambition. The book challenges the church of today to put aside its mediocrity and respond obediently to Christ's great commission.
